"Here let the press the people's rights maintain,

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY STATE SENTINEL are the recognized organs of the Democracy of Indiana. As it has in the past, the SENTINEL will continue to advocate those principles and measures which are hest calculated to advance the happiness, the prosperity and the freedom of the people from all unjust and unnecessary restraints.

While cheerfully sustaining the Government as loyal citizens should, the SEXTINEL will vigilantly watch all on of constitutional fiberty. The freedom of speech and the free institutions. When these are struck down, no mat ter what may be the apology therefor, from that day dates the decline of American liberty. In order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity, the SENTINEL will fearlessly scru-nize and approve or condemn, as it believes the public ministrations. It will ever keep in view the distinction between supporting the Government and the venal acts of those who represent the Government. And we appeal for the support of all who desire to maintain a pure Constitutional Government, and continue for ourselves and our posterity the glorious heritage of free institutions, won by the

NEW AND VALUABLE WORK POR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

And all Connected with the Judicial Administration the Government.

Of the State of adiana, MONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references | Judicial decisions.

KRITER BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by

BINGHAM & DOUGHTY, INDIANAPOLIS.

Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the following ecommendation of the work: STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVES & HORD. - Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for pubhing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, a well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up t thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence "Rats do not die on the premises." Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the "They come out of their holes to die." eader of the contents of the page.

islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what Used by-the City Post Office. was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to Used by-the City Prisons and Station see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Ga- Used by --- the City Hospitals, Alms-Houses, vin and Hord have relieved as of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject or husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three acts of 1857. And they have followed the same mode of coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. rate notes contained in the volume in question. This vol- Dealers, etc.

ume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virown statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis priate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs, Gavin & Hord seem to have pergreatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval. In every respect the volume under review is highly reditable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o Medina [O.] Gazette. its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which stroyed annually in Grant County by vermin we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice of 1852, with as bequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book, solely because he believes the editors and publishers deserve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the boo
